

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY NOTIFICATION AND COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY IS THE LAW

It is against the law for WorkSource Atlanta (“WSA”), a recipient of Federal financial assistance, to discriminate on the following bases: Against any individual in the United States, on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, and related medical conditions, sex stereotyping, transgender status, and gender identity), national origin (including limited English proficiency), age, disability, or political affiliation or belief, or, against any beneficiary of, applicant to, or participant in programs financially assisted under Title I of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act, on the basis of the individual's citizenship status or participation in any WIOA Title I-financially assisted program or activity.

WorkSource Atlanta must not discriminate in any of the following areas: deciding who will be admitted, or have access, to any WIOA Title I-financially assisted program or activity; providing opportunities in, or treating any person with regard to, such a program or activity; or making employment decisions in the administration of, or in connection with, such a program or activity.

WorkSource Atlanta takes all reasonable steps to ensure communications with individuals with disabilities are as effective as communications with others. This means that, upon request and at no cost to the individual, recipients are required to provide appropriate auxiliary aids and services to qualified individuals with disabilities.

What To Do If You Believe You Have Experienced Discrimination

If you think that you have been subjected to discrimination under a IOA Title I-financially assisted program or activity, you may file a complaint within 180 days from the date of the alleged violation with either:

- If you file your complaint with the recipient, you must wait either until the recipient issues a written Notice of Final Action, or until 90 days have passed (whichever is sooner), before filing with the Civil Rights Center (see address above).
- If the recipient does not give you a written Notice of Final Action within 90 days of the day on which you filed your complaint, you may file a complaint with CRC before receiving that Notice. However, you must file your CRC complaint within 30 days of the 90-day deadline (in other words, within 120 days after the day on which you filed your complaint with the recipient).

- If the recipient does give you a written Notice of Final Action on your complaint, but you are dissatisfied with the decision or resolution, you may file a complaint with CRC. You must file your CRC complaint within 30 days of the date on which you received the Notice of Final Action.

Who Can File A Complaint

- A person, or any specific class of individuals, that has been or is being discriminated against based on race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, and related medical conditions, transgender status, and gender identity), national origin (including limited English proficiency), age, disability, political affiliation or belief, citizenship status, or participation in any WIOA Title I-financially assisted program or activity as prohibited by WIOA or this part.
- Either the person, or any specific class of individuals, that has been discharged, intimidated, retaliated against, threatened, coerced, or discriminated against because the individual has filed a complaint alleging a violation of the nondiscrimination and equal opportunity provisions of WIOA or furnished information to, or assisted or participated in any manner in, an investigation, review, hearing, or any other activity related to any of the following:

What Must Be Included In Your Complaint

Each complaint must be filed in writing, either electronically or in hard copy, and must contain the following information:

- The complainant's name, mailing address, and, if available, email address (or another means of contacting the complainant).
- The identity of the respondent (the individual or entity that the complainant alleges is responsible for the discrimination).
- A detailed description of the complainant's allegations.
- The written or electronic signature of the complainant or the written or electronic signature of the complainant's representative.

Your Right to Representation

Both the complainant and the respondent have the right to be represented by an attorney or other individual of their choice.

Timeline for Processing Your Complaint

- All discrimination-based complaints must be filed within one hundred and eighty (180) days of the alleged discrimination.
- A response from WSA shall be issued within ninety (90) days of the complaint's filing.
- The resolution shall be the written Notice of Final Action.
- Options for Complaint resolution shall include alternative dispute resolution (ADR).
- If the complainant is dissatisfied with the resolution of his/her complaint by WSA or the Technical College System of Georgia, Office of Workforce Development ("OWD"), the complainant may file a new complaint with CRC within thirty (30) days of the date on which the complainant receives the Notice of Final Action.

- If WSA or OWD fails to issue the Notice of Final Action within ninety (90) days of the date on which the complaint was filed, a new complaint may be filed with CRC within thirty (30) days of the expiration of the ninety (90) day period (in other words, within one hundred and twenty (120) days of the date on which the original Complaint was filed).

Required Elements of WorkSource Atlanta’s Response to Your Complaint

WorkSource Atlanta will issue a written Notice of Final Action on complaints within 90 days of the date on which the complaint is filed that must include the following elements:

- Initial, written notice to the complainant that contains the following information:
  - An acknowledgment that WSA has received the complaint; and
  - Notice that the complainant has the right to be represented in the complaint process; and
  - Notice of rights contained in the EO Notice; and
  - Notice that the complainant has the right to request and receive, at no cost, auxiliary aids and services, language assistance services, and that this notice will be translated into the non-English languages as required in §§38.4(h) and (i), 38.34, and 38.36.
- A written statement of the issue(s) provided to the complainant includes the following information:
  - A list of the issues raised in the complaint; and
  - For each such issue, a statement whether WSA will accept the issue for investigation or reject the issue, and the reasons for each rejection.
- A period for fact-finding or investigation of the circumstances underlying the complaint.
- A period during which WSA attempts to resolve the complaint. The methods available to resolve the complaint must include alternative dispute resolution (ADR).
  - The complainant may attempt ADR at any time after the complainant has filed a written complaint with the recipient, but before a Notice of Final Action has been issued.
  - The choice whether to use ADR or the customary process rests with the complainant.
  - A party to any agreement reached under ADR may notify OWD or CRC in the event the agreement is breached. In such circumstances, the following rules will apply:
    - The non-breaching party may notify OWD or CRC within 30 days of the date on which the non-breaching party learns of the alleged breach: and
    - OWD or CRC must evaluate the circumstances to determine whether the agreement has been breached. If OWD or CRC determines that the agreement has been breached, the complaint will be reinstated and processed in accordance with WSA's procedures.
    - If the parties do not reach an agreement under ADR, the complainant may file a complaint with OWD, or CRC as described in §§38.69 through 38.71.
- A written Notice of Final Action, provided to the complainant within 90 days of the date on which the complaint was filed, that contains, for each issue raised in the complaint, a statement of either:
  - The recipient's decision on the issue and an explanation of the reasons underlying the decision; or
  - A description of the way the parties resolved the issue; and,
  - Notice that the complainant has a right to file a complaint with CRC within 30 days of the date on which the Notice of Final Action is received if the complainant is dissatisfied with the recipient's final action on the complaint.

COMPLAINTS OF FRAUD

In cases of suspected fraud, abuse, or other alleged criminal activity, you should direct your concerns to the Office of Inspector General, U.S. Department of Labor, at 1-866-435-7644 or inspector.general@oig.ga.gov.

COMPLAINTS AGAINST PUBLIC SCHOOLS

If the complaint is not resolved informally and it involves public schools of the State of Georgia, the grievance procedure will comply with WIOA and OCGA 20-2-1160.
